Preface.

The Editor of the following little work being convinced by observation & experience, that attention to Psalmody may be greatly instrumental towards increasing the number, & promoting the devotional spirit of a Congregation, has been induced to compile this selection of Psalm tunes, with a hope that under the divine blessing the voice of praise may be heard more generally throughout our Churches, & that it be no longer confined to the few who in most instances constitute our Choirs.

The Editor has authority to state that a Specimen of the work as well as its general object has received the approbation of his Lordship, The Bishop of Down & Connor, & hopes it will prove a useful auxiliary to the selection of Psalms already authorized & recommended by his Lordship "in which the Psalms are adapted to the Service of the day, thus keeping up a harmony of feeling between the different parts of worship." — The tunes selected are the most simple and popular, & may be sung by three voices two trebles and a Bass, the upper line being adapted for two trebles. — The table of instructions comprises only a few, brief & necessary Rules of Psalmody, the object of the work throughout being rather to render it useful & easy to the younger & humble Classes of our Brethren, than to gratify the taste of the Scientific. — It is respectfully suggested to those into whose hands the work may fall that to promote its object they will make themselves acquainted during the previous week with the Psalms for each succeeding Sunday, so that they may be better enabled to join in this delightful but too often neglected part of our divine Service.

A few Psalms added at the request of friends to the Periodical cause will be found by reference to the table of Contents.

A few simple Instructions IN Psalmody.

The Gamut, Lesson 1st

Lesson 2nd

The names of the Notes & their proportions

1 Semibreve — is equal to — Semibreve
2 Minims — or — Minim
4 Crotchets — or — Crotchet
8 Quavers — or — Quaver
16 Semiquavers — or — Semiquaver
32 Demisemiquavers — Demisemiquaver

Lesson 3rd

A Sharp ♯ or Flat ♭ set at the beginning of a Psalm is to be continued throughout unless a natural be prefixed to any note which is then reduced to its original sound, an accidental Sharp, Flat, or Natural only affects the bar in which it is placed. A bar marked thus divides the time, A double bar thus is only placed at the end of a line or Strain, when dotted it denotes the part should be repeated. The letters f. and p. stand for forte loud, & piano or soft, & denote the part over which they are placed should be sung accordingly.

Lesson 4th

A pause thus over a note or rest, denotes that it is to be sustained longer than the original measure. A dot after a note makes it longer by one half, thus a dotted Minim is as long as 3. Crotchets, or a dotted crotchet as long as 3 Quavers.

Example.

Lesson 5th.

Of Time — In Psalmody there are but two sorts of time used, Common Time, and Triple Time, Common Time marked thus C. at the beggining of a tune denotes that there a four Crotchets or their proportions in a bar, Triple time is thus $\frac{3}{2}$ $\frac{3}{4}$ or $\frac{3}{8}$ the first two figures denote that there are 3 Minims, the second 3 Crotchets, and the third 3 Quavers in a bar, the latter time is rarely used in Psalmody — The Semibreve being the note by which all the others are measured, the lower figure is the division of the Semibreve & the upper figure denotes how many of such notes are contained in a bar.

The Statutes of the Lord are just,
And bring sincere delight:

But what frail man observes how oft
He does from virtue fall?
O cleanse me from my secret faults,
Thou God that know'st them all.

Let no presumptuous sin, O Lord,
Dominion have o'er me;
That, by thy grace preserv'd, I may

33, 36, & 37 Vs.

Instruct me in thy statutes, Lord,
Thy righteous paths display;
And I from them, through all my life,
Will never go astray.

Do thou to thy most just commands
Incline my willing heart;
Let no desire of worldly wealth
From thee my thoughts divert.

From those vain objects turn my eyes,
Which this false world displays;
But give me lively pow'r and strength
To keep thy righteous ways.

Third Part.

169, 174, & 176, Vs.

To my request and earnest cry
Attend, O gracious Lord:
Inspire my heart with heav'nly skill,
According to thy word.

My soul has waited long to see
Thy saving grace restor'd;
Nor comfort knew, but what thy laws,
Thy heav'nly laws afford.

Like some lost sheep, I've stray'd till I
Despair my way to find:
Thou therefore, Lord, thy servant seek,
Who keeps thy laws in mind.

For ever bless his Name
